To Whom it May Concern,

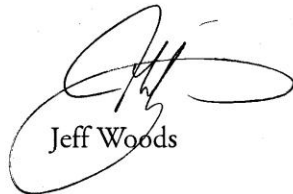

Packaging Solutions has consistently helped us to achieve on time delivery to market. They went the extra mile and never flinched. They treat us like a preferred customer. We're not their biggest, but they treat us like we are.

Their flexibility to adapt to our changing requirements, has continued to impress. We do some creative things. Most companies would be challenged to pull them off. They trust our art department and give us technical support when we need it. They offer innovative solutions to our strategic needs. They manage to find ways to improve our ability to serve our customers. The results are impressed and happy clients.

They have always been affordable. Frankly, every company capable of doing the job is priced about the same. The difference for us is the value we receive when working with Packaging Solutions. We have come to expect Packaging Solutions to do the job right because they have never let us down.

We thank Packaging Solutions for their dedication to a high quality product and to outstanding customer service.

All the best,

Jeff Woods
